INTRODUCTION

Established in 1965, the Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO) is an international organization among governments of Southeast Asian countries to promote regional cooperation in education, science and culture in Southeast Asia.

SEAMEO envisions itself as a dynamic, self reliant, strategic, policy-driven and internationally- recognized organization that strengthens regional understanding for a better quality of life.

Its 11 Member Countries include Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Lao PDR, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor Leste and Vietnam. It embodies 7 Associate Member Countries: Australia, Canada, France, Germany, New Zealand, Spain, and United Kingdom; and four Affiliate Members, namely the International Council for Open and Distance Education (ICDE), the University of Tsukuba, Japan; the British Council, and the China Education Association for International Exchange (CEAIE).

Over the past forty-five years, SEAMEO has developed 20 regional centres throughout Southeast Asia, which provide human resource development and diverse areas of expertise in education, health, culture and tradition, information and communication technology, poverty alleviation, environment, and agriculture and natural resources.

As an organization that continues to nurture capacity building for human resource development, SEAMEO maintains its work and aspirations to improve quality and equity in education in the Southeast Asian region and beyond.

This Directory is updated regularly on the SEAMEO’s website at http://www.seameo.org/vl/library/dlwelcome/publications/ebook/directory/
